Fatherless and cast off as a baby by her mother, Micki Forrester's only family has been Gram, the energetic woman who raised Micki from birth. When, as adult, Micki leaves for a long-anticipated tour of the Holy Lands, she never guesses that secrets about her past are traveling with her. When news reaches Micki that Gram has been hospitalized, she wants to return to the States immediately. But Gram insists she remain in Israel, and this event triggers an avalanche of revelations more overwhelming to Micki than what she's learning of the history of the Holy Lands. She may not have come to Galilee with love, but will it be the place where she can discover love's true meaning-and learn to hold it in her heart forever?
