Heavenly Bodyguards - Against All Evil (Volume 2) Rebecca Lange

“Tell me something Bri, has giving up made you happy? Has your situation changed because you feel sorry for yourself? How can you expect others to stop feeling sorry for you, if you’re not willing to stop feeling sorry for yourself?” Convincing a healthy, beautiful teenage girl to believe in herself is hard, but the task becomes almost impossible when seventeen year old Brianna has an accident that will change her life forever. Joelle's task is to help Brianna understand that she needs to love herself no matter what, and that giving up hope isn't an option - life is still beautiful. But this isn't her only mission. Joelle receives two more assignments - even more demanding and intense. Abuse, bullying and racism are some of the challenges that await her. However, things finally look up for her when, for the second time, she discovers a power that none of the other angels seem to have.
