Reflections of Her Mountain Look Linda S. French

In her biography Reflections of Her Mountain Look, author Linda French tells her dear friend's story of deceit, abuse, and the struggle to expose an evil that the American judicial system refused to punish. Jenny was a wife and mother in small-town America. Seeking a spiritual connection, she and her family unwittingly became part of a cult that quickly consumed their lives. . .and their freedom. During her time in the cult, Jenny and her family were subjected to brainwashing, as well as physical, emotional and sexual abuse. In this narration, the author pulls the reader in to share the trauma of cult life and allows us to comprehend how a rational woman who loves her family could allow this to happen. Perhaps even more dramatic is Jenny's story after her escape and the courage she found to fight back. It is during this fight that she begins to understand what pulled her into this powerful and destructive vortex. Reflections of Her Mountain Look is a story everyone needs to read.
