From Charing Cross to the East End and beyond, gain a new perspective on London with this spectacular collection of aerial photographs from Jason Hawkes, one of Britain's leading photographers. Hawkes targets both the city's noted locations and structures as well as its lesser known districts, and each stunning image is accompanied by informative text from leading travel author Donna Dailey. Five extended articles give further detail on England's capital, including the city's history, its green spaces, its architecture, and its role as a world capital. With more than 100 color photographs, this is a unique look at one of the world's most famous cities.
