Heather couldn't quite believe what happened at her last massage session. She hasn't decided yet if she was going to go back and she confides in August and the response that she gets is not what she expects. It's decided that August will go with her to make sure that everything is safe. They both know deep down that it has more to do with the fact that August is curious and has this desire to stretch her wings physically. When they arrive, they are greeted by Belinda, who introduces them to Tamina. Will this change August's opinion about her?
