Le spiritisme Comment parler avec les morts (Camion Noir) (French Edition) Christian Bouchet

Le spiritisme est l'art de communiquer avec les esprits des personnes défuntes grâce à des techniques précises et éprouvées. Si la pratique est ancienne - on trouve les premiers témoignages d'évocation des âmes des morts dans La Bible - ce n'est qu'en 1847 que le spiritisme, comme nous le connaissons, apparut aux États-Unis. Mouvement informel et confus à ses débuts, il trouva son théoricien et codificateur dans la personne d'un Français, Allan Kardec. Dans la seconde moitié du XIXe siècle, le spiritisme fut un phénomène de grande amplitude dont l'influence fut importante dans les milieux scientifiques, politiques et culturels. Si l'intérêt pour cette doctrine a été en décroissant par la suite, le spiritisme connaît cependant, depuis le dernier quart du XXe siècle, une embellie grâce au mouvement du Nouvel Âge qui lui a donné une nouvelle dénomination : le channeling. Dans cet ouvrage sur le spiritisme, l'auteur - qui a publié chez le même éditeur une biographie d'Allan Kardec - retrace l'histoire de ce courant, de ses différentes variantes et de leurs évolutions, sans oublier d'étudier sa théorie et sa pratique. Ouvrage neutre dans ses descriptions et ses analyses, Le spiritisme, comment parler avec les morts, rédigé par un spécialiste de l'étude des mouvements spirituels minoritaires, passionnera aussi bien les spirites et leurs amis, que les incroyants et les chercheurs.
