Joel's schoolmates call him "Crazy Moonie." He hears voices in his head. Hoping for a cure, his father enrolls him in the Temple of Differe School. Joel finds the cure is worse than the disease when the headmaster imprisons him in the dungeon-like Moonstruck, where he and another student must take their lessons alone. Joel believes escape is his only chance. Along the way, he picks up three companions--a mysterious man, a hotheaded young woman, and her sickly brother.

The four arrive in Waiz, where inhabitants revere something they call the "Majestic." Upon further investigation, Joel finds their object of worship is no more than an old black rock. Or is it?

The longer the four stay in Waiz, the more the animosity between Old Waiz and New Waiz threatens to turn into war. Then someone murders an Old Waiz leader and Joel finds himself the accused. Danger follows as he tries to find if his true freedom lies in a city on the brink of war, or a king no one can see.
