Welcome back to Hereville, where Mirka, the world's first time-traveling, monster-fighting Orthodox Jewish girl, faces her greatest challenge yet: babysitting! Mirka just wants to find new adventures, but instead she's stuck babysitting her disapproving little sister, Layele. When Mirka pushes her sister into a stream, they both get in too deep with an angry magic fish. No matter how hard Mirka fights this fish-out-of-water, it gets stronger and stronger--and it's out for revenge. Mirka is in over her head, and this time, her whole family is on the line! When the fish kidnaps Layele, Mirka must find a way to save her little sister, and the clues she needs are hidden in her stepmother Fruma's past. Mixing adventure, cultural traditions, squabbling siblings, and preteen commotion, Hereville: How Mirka Caught a Fish is sure to captivate readers with its exciting visuals and indomitable heroine.

John Bonilla:

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Hereville: How Mirka Caught a Fish can make you feel more interested to read.
