More to Think About George M. Ricker

Over the last decade, there has been a remarkable resurgence of theological work that attempts to rethink and re-enliven Christianity. George Ricker has worked through sermons, newspaper columns, Sunday school classes and radio spots, seeking a mature faith that is authentic to the historic witness and also credible to the postmodern, even post-Christian world. George is a marvel. At 89, he serves as Pastor Emeritus at University United Methodist Church in Austin, Texas and he continues to teach and write about the meaning of the Christian faith.
