The Best Barbecue on Earth: Grilling Across 6 Continents and 25 Countries, with 170 Recipes Rick Browne

Barbecue goes global as pit master Rick Browne travels to 26 locations, tasting, cooking, photographing, and adapting some of the world's best outdoor-cooking recipes for American grills and kitchens. Rick gorges on asado in Argentina; tosses Orange-Ginger Prawns on the barbie in Australia; experiences the epic South African feast known as braai; and grills just-caught sardines in Portugal. Lively introductions to each country's unique barbecuing culture accompany a selection of the most mouthwatering and authentic yet approachable recipes Rick found there. Evocative location and styled food photographs will have readers planning a grilling party with a Korean (or German, or Mexican) theme in no time. A bountifully photographed collection of 175 of the world's best recipes for barbecued and grilled entrées and starters, along with complementary sides and desserts. The first collection of genuinely international barbecue recipes on the market. Rick Browne's previous books have sold more than 100,000 copies. Reviews "The author has discovered a wide variety of interesting dishes worth exploring." -Chicago Tribune New York Times Book Review Summer Reading issue, Web extra 20 additional top cookbooks.
