Correr para vivir (Astor) (Spanish Edition) Lopez Lomong

Correr para vivir no es solo una historia sobre África ni siquiera un relato sobre atletismo o sobre las Olimpiadas... Es la biografía de un joven que aun teniéndolo todo en contra es capaz de perseguir un sueño a todas luces inalcanzable.

En este libro, Lopez Lomong nos cuenta cómo pasó de ser un pobre niño soldado en la guerra civil de Sudán a convertirse en atleta olímpico norteamericano patrocinado por Nike; de cómo sobrevivió sin familia al terrible campo de refugiados de Kakuma y de cómo logró salir de allí evitando así un futuro abocado a la desesperanza.

La vida de Lomong es una prueba de que, en la mayor oscuridad, Dios puede hacer brillar la luz y ofrecer esperanza a los que la han perdido. Un ejemplo de valor, trabajo duro y tenacidad para alcanzar los propios ideales.

Lopez Lomong nació en Kimotong, un pequeño pueblo del sur de Sudán en 1985; a los 6 años fue secuestrado por unos soldados rebeldes de los que pudo escapar y llegar a un campo de refugiados en Kenia. Diez años después, se le presentó la oportunidad de su vida y fue adoptado por una familia de Estados Unidos. Allí siguió corriendo como había hecho en África y en 2007 llegó a ser atleta profesional. Ha participado en las Olimpiadas de Beijing 2008 como abanderado, y también en las de Londres 2012. Dirige una fundación para llevar esperanza a su tierra natal.
